Name Donati As Bookie Ring Leader

Facing possible imprisonment on contempt of court charges if she failed to testify, Marie Hammel Wednesday reluctantly implicated Dino Donati as the boss of a bookie business which was alleged to be operating at her Daly City home.

Questioned by district attorney's deputy Robert Carey, Mrs. Hammel, 47-year-old crippled housewife who lives at 1171 Brunswick, told municipal judge Thomas L. Bocci's court that pin ball machine distributor Donati paid her salary. She said her duties consisted of recording the horses that were bet and that Donati would call her to take "the action."

She was on the stand 2½ hours during the preliminary hearing for Donati on charges of bookmaking and conspiracy. Donati, 36, a resident of 19 Castlemont, was present but did not testify.

Court Order

Mrs. Hammel's testimony was prompted by an order from Superior Judge Aylett Cotton Monday, who ordered her in contempt of court for refusal to testify last Thursday, but said she would be absolved if she testified Tuesday. Judge Cotton's order granted her immunity from implicating herself by her testimony, so the char-

Council Threatens To With-hold Selmi's Check

The city council will decide Monday night whether to withhold City Treasurer Paul Selmi's pay check for his alleged failure to carry out his duties as a full-time city official.

Mayor Joseph Verducci displayed Selmi's check for $200, half a month's salary, at Monday's study session and told fellow councilman, "I don't want to sign this until I find out if this constitutes a gift of public funds. We're paying him a full-time salary when he doesn't work full time."

The treasurer's position was established as a full-time job by council ordinance in March. Since his re-election, the council claims Selmi only puts in a portion of his day at the job, leaving the remainder of the duties to a paid deputy.

City Attorney Frank Blum advised the council that they had four courses of action if they desired Selmi to occupy his city treasurer office on an eight-hour-a-day basis: Let the people take recourse; make an accusation to the grand jury; petition for write of alternative mandate ordering Selmi to show cause why he should not work full time; or refuse to sign Selmi's pay check and force the treasurer to bring suit against the city.

Councilman Paul Hupf prompted argument from fellow councilmen when he declared, "I don't condone Selmi's action but I question the wisdom of making the job full-time just before an election. I don't think the position requires a full time person."

"As the duties stand, it may not be full time," answered Councilman Micheal De Bernardi. "But as we contemplated the job it would entail tax collection and other duties."

Verducci also challenged Hupf's remark, standing, "We feel that it was an economy move in making the job full time and eliminating the position of a city-paid deputy."

The mayor claimed that Selmi's failure to work full time was "a subterfuge."

"I'm not defending Selmi," said Hupf, "but we're faced with a decision that's not easy."

Verducci then recommended that the council rule by motion next Monday on what to do about Selmi's check.

Blum commented that, "Maybe Selmi will contact you by that time and straighten this out."

Selmi was the leader of an unsuccessful recall movement against three of the city councilmen, Micheal De Bernardi, Del Wilson and Sanford Vickers.

High School Exercises On Thursday

A record number of graduates, 264 in all, will receive diplomas Thursday, June 14, at Jefferson Union High school commencement exercises. The event will begin at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Jefferson band directed by Alfred B. Runnells will lead off the ceremonies with the "Light Cavalry Overture" by Franz von Suppe followed by the processional "Pomp and Chivalry March" by Charles Roberts.

Invocation will be given by the Reverend Norman Allen.

Sandra Dalman, class speaker, will be introduced by Stanford Hannah, district superintendent.

Next on the program will be presentation of Victoria's "Ave Maria" and Berlin's "Give Me your Tired, Your Poor" by the Jefferson mixed chorus. Director is Miss Eunice Sexton, while accompanist duties will be taken by Miss Sandra Karn.

Principal John Mongan will make the honors awards. Graduates receiving scholarships are the following: Sharon Didier, San Mateo county nurses auxiliary; Ann Bergstresser, honors at entrance at Pomona college; Ronald Casentini, $600 State of California; Richard Stookey, $600 State of California and $300 University of California alumni; Ward Washington, $200 Mizbah Fellowship; Raymond C. Schneider, $200 Rotary International; James Honeywell, Stanford University athletic scholarship.

Diplomas will be awarded by Mrs. Mildred McGeein, retiring member of the board of trustees.

The Reverend John A. Glasse will offer the benediction, following which the recessional "Cornelius Festival March" by Mendelssohn will be played by the school band.

NOVEMBER RUN-OFFS FOR STATE, NATIONAL OFFICES

Republican Louis Francis claimed a narrow margin in the race for the special short-term 25th district State Assembly post Tuesday, but the regular Assembly term, along with other state and national officers, won't be decided until next November, unofficial results showed today.

With Democrats and Republicans both voting the straight party ticket, none of the partisan candidates was able to claim victory in the primary in San Mateo county.

Francis polled 21, 159 to win the special Assembly position, vacated last year by resignation of Daniel J. Creedon. Democrate Howard Hartley, who won his party's nomination for the regular Assembly term, was not far behind with 19,654. Francis polled 17,330 against Hartley's 2880 to win the Republican nomination for the full term, while Hartley tallied 14,332 on the Democratic ballot, against 4575 for Francis.

Younger Surprisd

Congressman J. Arthur Younger, Republican, who had counted on wrapping up his re-election in the primary, was rudely surprised by James McKay, Broadmoor tax attorney, who swept the Democratic nomination with 31,755, against 16,995 for Younger, who had cross-filed . McKay did not file on the Republican ballot, and Younger rolld up a 43,547 GOP total unopposed.

McKay, who did virtually no campaigning for the primary, told THE RECORD today that he is submitting his resignation from his job this week and will devote his full time from now until November in 'bringing the issues to the people."

The State Senate seat will also go on the block next November, as the respective parties gave decisive majorities to their candidates. Richard Dolwig, Republican, racked up 41,351 to easily win the nomination of his party, while Harold Robinson out-polled Dolwig, two to one, for the Democratic nod, with a 24,512 total.

U. S. Senator Thomas Kuchel, Republican will square off with State Senator Richard Richards for the upper house seat in November.

In San Mateo county, Kuchel won handily for the GOP nomination, but lost by 10,000 votes to Richards on the Demo ballot, and Richards held a firm Demo margin throughout the state.

Callan Not Threatened

Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr., unopposed for the first district seat, received a confidence vote of 78,530, while Peter J. Markovich of Westlake reseived 1291 write in votes for that position as a result of a 11th hour campaign.

Alvin Hatch retained his fourth district supervisorial post by a decisive margin, polling 61,900, to 18,893 for Fred Paxton, 5806 for Ralph Rehbein.

Supervisor William Werder and Superior Judge Murray Draper, both unopposed, received votes of confidence in excess of 75,000 each.

In the Democratic presidential primary, which probably determined that party's choice for the candidate to oppose President Eisenhower, Gov. Adlai Stevenson's winning ratio in San Mateo county followed that across the state. Stevenson received 31,755 votes, against 16,995 for Sen. Estes Kefauver. Eisenhower won 44,611 token votes on the Republican ballot.

Of the 152,793 registered voters in San Mateo county, approximately 66 per cent cast ballots. Breakdown of the registration shows 76,776 Democrats, 72,052, Republicans.

HEALTH CENTER HOPES REVIVED BY SSF DISPUTE

Daly City's hope for a health clinic received new life Tuesday as a result of a dispute between the county and South San Francisco over terms of a lease for land on which a north county health center was planned.

The county board of supervisors were told Tuesday that the South San Francisco city council had not approved a compromise reversionary clause for the land.

South City officials hold that the city should be able to take the property from the county at its discretion. The county asks a clause which would give the city that right only if the property were not used for a health center within five years.

Supervisor Martin Poss asked if it would be advisable to notify South San Francisco that the board will be considering another site "if they insist on such action."

Should negotiations fail, Daly City would be the next logical site for the proposed $100,000 health clinic, according to local officials.

Daly City officials held a special meting last week to further discuss acquisition of a site here for the county clinic.

Thursday Ceremony For OLPH Grads

Thursday evening will see 48 students graduating from Our Lady of Perpetual Help school. Ceremonies in the church will begin at 8 p.m.

Father James Bergin will address the graduating class and will also hand out the diplomas. He will be assisted in the latter duty by Father Norman Allen.

Sales Tax Thrown In Laps Of Cities Councils

San Mateo county's 13 city councils had the sales tax issue thrown squarely in their laps by the respective mayors last Thursday at a special meeting on the controversial one-cent sales tax.

Five of the mayors, including Daly City's Joseph Verducci, spoke in favor of the sales tax. Other cities going along with the new levy were San Carlos, Colma, Menlo Park and Belmont.

Taking a stand against the tax were mayors of San Mateo, Millbrae, South San Francisco and Atherton. Burlingame's executive head was undecided, while mayors from Redwood City and San Bruno said they were undecided, but leaned toward establishing the tax.

Verducci told the group he favored the sales tax if the money were used for capital improvements. He would not, he continued, favor the levy if it was to be used in the general fund or for reducing property taxes.

Councilmen Micheal De Bernardi and Del Wilson indicated they favored the sales tax, but only if the county's share of the revenue was limited to five per cent.

Throughout the county, numerous labor and business groups have expressed opposition to the penny tax, which can be instituted by individual cities or throughout the county by action of the board of supervisors.

COLMA CEMETERY WORKERS TURN DOWN 7½c BID

Colma cemetery workers Tuesday night rejected a new offer from the Associated Cemeteries of San Francisco to settle the month-old strike. Offer was a 7½ cents an hour pay increase.

Union demand is a 15 cents an hour boost. Other demands, state unemployment and disability insurance for the 180 union membrs, have already been granted by the association.

In turning down the bid, union leaders said that the offer was 2½ cents lower than the Oakland cemetery workers received last month.

No new negotiations have been scheduled.

Meanwhile, there were no new developments in the dispute between union embalmers and San Francisco mortuaries.

H. Doelger 'Dreamboat' Is Launched

Henry Doelger's swank yacht, "The Westlake II," billed as "the most beautiful in the world," was launched Tuesday in Bremen, Germany.

The plush vessel, 12 months under construction at the Abeking and Rasmussen shipyard, is 115 feet long and is powered by two engines giving it 1000 horsepower.

The new ship will replace the Westlake developer's current pleasure yact, the 87-foot "Westlake I," which was launched in 1951 and is now in Los Angeles.

Doelger plans to fly to Germany in about a week to take delivery of the glamorous ship. The prominent builder plans an extensive cruise in European waters before bringing the dreamboat to San Francisco waters sometimes next fall.

While the ballots were still warm from the previous day's primary election, Tuesday, two women called from Brisbane to inquire how recali proceedings are started.

Their object: Supervisor THOMAS CALLAN SR. of Colma, who received a vote of cofidence of nearly 80,000.

Brisbaners are stormed up over some remarks Callan reportedly made in front of them, and they were the moving forcing behind the PETE MARKOVICH write-in campaign, which pulled about 1300 votes.

TO HOLD EXAM FOR ELECTRICAL INSPECTOR JOB

The city will proceed with a civil service examination to fill the newly-created position of electrical inspector-city electrician, despite pleas Monday by spokesmen for electrical contractors and the union that a union man be placed in the job.

Werner Diederschen, business agent for International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local 617, and W. J. Varley, executive secretary of the San Mateo County Electrical Contractors association, appeared before the council in study session Monday to plead that the job be given to a card-carrying electrician or that the salary be commensurate with union wages.

Diederschen and Varley both claimed that the man who now holds the job on a temporary basis, Henry Weisner, a former fireman, is not qualified to handle electrical inspection. Also voicing this argument was Bill Kennedy, local electrical contractor.

City Manager Howard Stites said that the state was setting up the examination for the position, and held that it would insure that a qualified person got the job.

Diederschen and Varley also protested the city's handling its own minor electrical jobs, urging that these be given to union men.

The council did not establish any specific policy as to contracting out electrical work, but decided to meet each job as it came up.

Negro Says Denied Purchase Of Home In Callan Tract

A Negro Marine Corps veteran charged last week that "Negroes are not welcome" in the Flood Park Estates tract in Palo Alto, a subdivision built by Callan Construction Company and headed by Michael Callan of Daly City, local school board trustee.

In a letter to the East Palo Alto-Menlo Park branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Kelly D. Daniels, 25, a postal clerk, said that he has tried since May 10 to buy a home in the tract.

Callan, president of the building firm, said "That's news to me," in denying there was any racial discrimination in his home sales.

"We don't refuse anybody if they can qualify financially," Callan said, adding that, "I know there was a Negro purchaser down there, but he didn't qualify. Maybe this is the same one."

Callan claimed that "what he told the salesman and what his credit report showed are two different things. He wasn't making as much as he said he was."

Callan commented that, "We've been very fortunate there," when asked if any Negroes had purchased homes in his tract. "All white people have bought the houses so far," he continued.

Callan said when asked if he would sell to a Negro who was financially qualified, "You know the law on that as well as I do. A Negro can buy any place, any time he wants to."

DC BEAUTY WINS TITLE OF MISS SAN FRANCISCO

Second honor from San Francisco within a month's time was accorded Daly City Friday night when Miss Judy Weld, 20, 2127 Junipero Serra boulevard, was chosen to reign as Miss San Francisco.

The neighboring city to the north crept into Daly City limits only a month ago to steal another beauty queen, nine-year-old Judy Moore who reigned over San Francisco's May Day festivities. Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore of 63 Westdale avenue.

Latest Daly City laurel to San Francisco's crown, Miss Weld, boasts 35-24-36 proportions. The brown-eyed brunette, who is now employed with the telephone company, will collect $2000 in flute lessons, clothes and jewelry as a result of winning Friday's contest.

She will travel to Santa Cruz on June 22 to compete in the Miss California contest, the winner of which will vie for the Miss America title in Atlantic City.

Miss Weld is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Weld.

NEW WALTON HOME IS NEARER REALITY

New house for the James Waltons, burned out of their former residence on May 15, became closer to reality today as cash donations reached $1706.31.

Peter Markovich, spokesman for the committee to aid the family, reported that additional services and materials have also swelled within the past week. New pledges include Westlake Catholic Men, $50, and Al Rosenberg, draperies.

Donations may be sent to the fire chief at station No. 5, Lake Merced boulevard, or the Chamber of Commerce office, 6454 Mission street.

Broadmoor Cops Begin 'Locked Car' Campaign

Broadmoor residents were urged today by Police Chief Ray Savage to lock their cars before leaving them parked on the street.

Savage explained that in checking over the list of recent car thefts in the neighborhood it was discovered that most of the autos were left unlocked by the owner.

In order to carry out the "locked car" campaign, Savage said that reserve officers checked parked vehicles Tuesday night and left notices if the autos were unlocked.

Clerk Gets Pay For Extra Duties

City Clerk Evelyn Mosman, who has also been serving as tax collector and assessor since her election, will start receiving compensation for her extra duties as provided by the government code, the council ruled in study session Monday night.

Meeting with the council, Mrs. Mosman explained that she had only been receiving her regular salary of $450 for clerk duties, and that the code specified she was to be compensated for her extra chores, if no other person was designated to handle the jobs.

As assessor, she will receive an additional $50, and $100 for tax collector, bringing her total monthly salary to $600.

The council was in agreement that the positions of assesor and tax collector would be studied more thoroughly at the time the budget is reviewed.

Priority List Given For Street Projects

Portions of Belleveue, Templeton and Acton streets were given first priority for re-paving and repair work in a list submitted to the city council Monday night by City Engineer Cyril Weiler.

Weiler said the work could proceed as soon as the First and Valley street storm drain project is completed.

Other streets in poor condition which were placed near the top on priority were Winchester, Bismark, Gambetta, Como, Railroad, Sullivan, Santa Cruz and Santa Barbara.

City Manager Howard Stites said there is sufficient money in the public works department to handle the three top priority projects this fiscal year.

Delay Del Pape Case Until Next Friday

Ferdinand Del Pape, 51, 21 Parkview avenue, will appear in San Francisco municipal court Friday on a charge of grand theft. Two-week continuance of preliminary hearing was granted in court last Friday.

Del Pape was arrested at his home May 24 by San Francisco Police Inspector Max Reznik who said that the local man admitted to stealing items from a wholesale warehouse for 29 years. Del Pape, while stealing at least one article every day of his employ, worked his way up in the company from clerk to manager of the tool department.

He is now free on $1000 bail.

Vandals Smash Windows At DC Grocery Store

Plate glass window at the School street grocery store, 82 School street, was smashed Friday night, according to a report filed with police by owner Louis Bozza.

Officers said that the vandals apparently tried to break into the store but were prevented from doing so by a padlocked door.

O-Rama . . . . The San Mateo County Boy Scout Council version of the national event.

What somebody didn't know is that all of Daly City is in the San Francisco Scout Council, so the layout rindered, rather than helped, attendance at the SF Scout-O-Rama.

On the San Francisco subject, Daly City is still leading the Queen City in the beauty department.

Earlier this year a Daly City lassie was chosen as San Francisco's May Queen.

Last week Daly City's JUDY WELD was honored with the title, "Miss San Francisco."

Maybe the Chamber of Commerce ought to take the cue and start advertising some of Daly City's bountiful supply of leg art.

DC Poundman CHARLEY MASCHINOT is around as a Boston Bull over the fact that the city pound is not even mentioned in the city's first annual report.

Charley must think it's a dog's life.

HENRY SUNDERMANN SR., Daly City pioneer, had some bees in his bonnet this week.

Hornets built a pent-house nest on top of his home at 10 Guadalupe and it took LYLE CHURCH and WARD ALBEE of the fire department to remove the invaders, with the aid of a carbon tetrachloride fire extinguisher.

E. WILLE, 4 Shakespeare, a Colma grave-digger and native of the little European principality of Liechtenstein before he moved to Daly City many years ago, lunched with royalty the other day.

He dined with Prince Francis Joseph, ruler of Liechtenstein, who is here to study the ways of the American and report back to his 17,000 people.

JOHN SACALDASIS, long-time owner of the Daly City coffee shop, a Daly City landmark, is selling to STEVE ISARIS.

That the local establishment has been around for some time is evident from the lettering on the front window, which claims proudly, "Booths for Ladies."

Once Daly City had one cab company. Now everybody's getting into the act in an effort to obtain the six new permits voted recently by the council.

Yellow Cab Co., Westlake Taxi Co. and Northgate Transit Co. will soon be joined in the race for permits by another firm. BOBBIE COHN, head of West Coast Shows and local recreation commissioner, says he is going to apply to operate a taxi business here.

It looks like city employees are in for a five per cent pay boost this year, but exact amount of the increment won't be known until th budget is scrutinized further.

San Jose State college is graduating a record class of 1116 Friday and Daly City's lone representative will be DANIEL D. GARAY, who will receive an a.b. in public relations.

San Mateo, by contrast, has 20 students going up the ramp for their bachelor papers.

Local Painter Arrested Here On Drunk Charge

A 49-year-old painter was arrested on a drunk count here Thursday afternoon when officers said they found him lying on the sidewalk of Santa Barbara and Knowles avenue.

The painter, Raymond J. Oakes, 76 Miriam street, is now out on $10 bail and is scheduled to appear in municipal court on Tuesday.

New Street Numbers

The function of assigning street numbers for new houses was transferred from the clerk's office to the engineering department in action by the city council Monday night.

Westlake Association Raps Alemany Flora

Better maintenance of the planting strips on Alemany boulevard in Weslake was asked by the Westlake Improvement association in a letter to the council this week.

The association, charging that "numerous complaints related to this keep reaching us," asked that the planting strips be "weeded, re-planted and in general be maintained and cleaned as needed."

The council was urged to turn the request over to the proper agency.

Grubb Swats Apple At .588 Clip To Pace PAL Playoffs

Sequoia picked up the marbles in the PAL baseball playoffs with Jefferson, but the Indians' outfielder Bob Grubb won the laurels during the Shaugnessy competition.

Grubb, a .235 batter during regular season and unmentioned for All-PAL of the All-Star senior nine, whacked three home runs in two games and claimed the series hitting championship with a torrid .588 average in six games.

In addition, he scored nine runs, tops for the playoffs, tied Sequoia's Irv Haydock and Bob Scott in hits with 10 and equalled Scott in runs batted in with nine. Grubb had 21 total bases for a 1.000 plus slugging average.

Council Acts To Keep Trucks Off Hillside Boulevard

City Attorney Frank Blum was directed by the city council Monday to draft an ordinance which will prohibit heavy trucks traveling on Hillside boulevard.

A section prohibiting truck traffic on certain streets was scheduled to be included in a revised traffic code now under preparation by Blum, but City Manager Howard Stites said some action should be taken immediately to keep the heavy vehicles off Hillside boulevard, which has just been re-surfaced.

"We don't want these heavy trucks to ruin our new pavement," Stites explained, pointing out that the surface could be damaged in just a short time by the big vehicles.

SALESMAN ARRESTED ON DRUNK CHARGE

A 31-year-old San Francisco salesman was charged with being drunk in and about an auto early Sunday morning. Arrested was Robert James McCulloch, 31, of 111 Morningside, San Francisco.

Officers said they spotted him entering a car on the 6100 block of Mission street at 3:45 a.m.

He was released on $25 cash bail and is scheduled to appear in municipal court on June 21.

PROPERTY NEARBY COLMA SCHOOL MAY BE ANNEXED

Owners of two blocks of property east of Hillside boulevard and south of Colma school have inquired of the city council of the requirements for annexation.

Request for information on annexation was made by Louis Polletti, realtor. One block of the land is subdivided into 25'x25' lots, while the other remains in 100'x100' lots and will probably be subdivided into smaller lots.

Mayor Joseph Verducci said he felt the request should go to the planning commission first, but City Engineer Cyril Weiler explained that Polletti was not making an application but seeking information on annexation requirements.

Name Donati As Bookie Ring Leader

ges of bookmaking and conspiracy lodged against her at the May 2 raid on her home will probably be dismissed.

During Tuesday's preliminary, which lasted from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. and still was not completed, Police Lt. Roy Beecher took the stand to elaborate on the particulars of May 2 raid at the Brunswick home.

He was cross-examined by James Mac Innis, Donati's attorney, who questioned Beecher's ability to recognize Donati's voice over the phone. After the raid, Beecher said he stayed at the Hammel home and took numerous bets. He said Donati was among the callers.

Pleads' Fifth'

Mrs. Hammel's husband, Kenneth, arrested simultaneously at Hunter's Point on May 2 by treasury agents on a charge of failure to purchase a federal wagering stamp, was called as a witness but refused to testify, pleading the fifth amendment. Mrs. Hammel had refused to testify last week on the unusual plea that it might implicate her husband, but Judge Cotton apparently rejected this interpretation of the constitution.

At the continuation of Donati's preliminary next Wednesday morning in Judge Bocci's court, the prosecution is expected to call as chief witness A. L. "Red" Lamport, deputy district attorney, for testimony on the bookie paraphernalia allegedly in use at the Hammel home. He will probably be the last witness called by Carey.

Mrs. Hammel was represented by Attorney Pat Kearns, but most of the cross-exmaination was done by MacInnis.

The district attorney's office is expected to enter a motion to dismiss the charges against Mrs. Hammel as soon as she has completed testimony.

Donati, meanwhile, last week surrendered himself to the criminal division of the U.S. Attorneys office on five separate federal charges, including failure to purchase his $50 wagering stamps, and four counts of failure to pay the 10 per cent tax on all wagers accepted. He is alleged to have grossed $10,000 each month over a four-month period for his reported bookmaking activities.

Donati will be arraigned today (Friday) before Judge Murphy U.S. district court, at which time he will be asked to enter plea. A continuance will probably be sought by his attorney, however.

He is free on $2500 bail on the federal charges and $3000 on the local count.

Three-Year-Old Injured in Cherry Bomb Mishap

A three-year-old Westlake child was treated for a severe leg cut suffered last week when a cherry bomb was thrown by another youngster.

Victim of the dangerous sport was Cindy Sarubbi, 37 Castlemont avenue. Cindy was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sarubbi following the accident. She was transferred to the care of the family doctor after emergency treatment at Junipero Serra.

Close to $1000 worth of equipment was stolen Monday night from construction shacks on the Westmoor High school site.

Theo. Meyer and Sons representatives reported that loss amounted to $275. Taken were an electric cord, nails, picks and an electric drill.

A FULL DAY FOR THE TREASURER

The city treasurer job has been established as a full-time position. Does this mean the man elected to the office should work at it full time instead of hiring a deputy to run the fiscal affairs?

The council seems to think so and we go along with their reasoning.

The job was made full-time prior to the last election and the two candidates for the office were fully aware that should they be elected, their full-time services would be demanded.

We do not know to what extent the treasurer is delegating his duties to a paid deputy. We are aware that the city treasurer and city clerk are entitled to appoint deputies to make official transactions in their absence.

But just how far does this deputy business go?

As a full-time city treasurer, Paul Selmi is receiving $400 a month for his services, as compared to $75 when the position was only on a part-time basis.

The voters of Daly City elected him for the job, and we do not believe they had any idea the functions of the office would be turned over to a hired employee.

As the city attorney has pointed out, the propriety of Selmi's actions in delegating a deputy to staff his treasurer's office during certain hours is a complex legal question.

Perhaps, under law, Mr. Selmi is on firm legal ground in having his deputy carry out any or all of his work. We leave that answer up to the courts, if such is the recourse taken.

Nevertheless, the question of whether Mr. Selmi's actions fulfill his obligation to the voters still must be faced.

As he has stated, he received the votes of a majority of the citizens and is their elected representative.

Since he represents the people in that particular position, the people are entitled to his services.

The council has indicated it will not sign his pay check, thus forcing Selmi to sue for the money and bring the matter to court.

Mr. Selmi could save the city time and money by tending to his city treasurer chores on a full-time basis.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Garvey Asks Study Of SJSC Land Use By CSM Trustees

You will remember that I was able to prove quite conclusively, that the nearly 40 acres which the College of San Mateo holds at the Delaware Campus, would easily support all of the buildings needed for a school of 4000-plus enrollment, with parking space for more than 1000 cars.

It is interesting to compare the enclosed plan of San Jose State College, a century old institution having the tremendous enrollment of 10,000 students, which is built on a total of 44 acres, the acreage of the entire area pictured here. It is obvious upon careful examination, that the main area with its 25 principal buildings, actually comprises less than 30 acres, and there are many unconscious similarities with the plan which I proposed for Delaware.

You will notice that this plan too, has gymnasia for men and women, to care for the prescribed and required Physical Education program. The large library is placed in one corner of the plot and not in the center, which shows a large open court. The buildings are mostly two story structures, although newer buildings will be three stories in height. Several city streets intersect the area without apparent detriment. At a distance of some two miles, another 57 acres accommodate the large stadium and play fields, which even at this greater distance, does not seem to interfere with efficient education. Thus, a total of 101 acres on a technically and similarly divided campus, serves 10,000 students today, and is intended to serve an eventual total of 14,000.

The State of California did not attempt to sell the old buildings, and the unquestionably valuable land in a convenient downtown location, but did retain these buildings which are much older than our Science and Shop buildings, and is now busy erecting new and modern additions. This, rather than consolidation on a new larger site, must have been the most economical solution for their problem, as I have proven would be true in our own case.

I hope that you will give serious thought to this comparison, which adds weight to the statements I have previously made to you. If the State of California, with its vast resources, does not feel it necessary to purchase 180 acres in a single site for a College of 14,000 enrollment, surely our small district should not be expected to operate on such a grand scale, but should be able to utilize the 70 acres now owned. I feel that much time and millions of dollars can be saved by taking a realistic view of our present situation, especially in view of the need for acquiring a second site in the North end of the County.

Sincerely yours,
R. C. Garvey.

Citizens, Schools Blamed For Poor Showing At Event

To the Editor:

Please accept our most sincere thanks for the wonderful coverage given the recent Hobby Show sponsored by Hillcrest circle No. 143 and Olive Grove No. 116, U.A.O.D.

After reading articles which appeared we were prepared for an overflow crowd, but the apathy of the citizenry of Daly City and lack of cooperation at the schools was appalling and most discouraging to the children who had prepared and entered displays.

Again expressing our deep appreciation for your efforts in trying to make the Hobby Show a success, and regretting that more interest was not shown by your readers, we remain.

Gratefully,
Hobby Show Committee

EAGLES CORNER

By Dell Fehl

Well, my Brothers, we are once again entering another fiscal year, our 48th, following the installation of officers held jointly with the auxiliary on Saturday.

The ceremony was as usual very well presented—acceptance speeches were short but peppy, the auxiliary degree team did excellent work, the ladies looked very nice in their formals of various colors, and an overflow crowd of nearly 300 attended.

Charles Bartha, our new Worthy President, certainly deserves a nod of approval and compliments for a job well done.

Following the ceremony nearly everyone went to our Aerie hall for a buffet and social. This really put the finishing touches on a pleasant evening.

Say, how about some ball players? The Eagle team, participating in their first game of the new season, was trounced by a score of 22 to 1, so you can easily see we do need help. If you can hit, run, catch or any combination, give Don Giffin a call at PLaza 6-1289.

Herm Kalinin at PLaza 5-4285 is hoping for a large turnout on the Aerie's bowling tournament, date to be announced later. Lots of prizes and fun are planned for both men and women.

Not much more to say until the W. P. makes his committee appointments except to repeat that being present at Thursday's meetings constitutes being a good Eagle. Help yourself by helping your new officers.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

"Rosalinda," second offering of the Civic Light Opera season, is currently packing them in at the Curran, continuing the success that this operetta, under one name or another, has had since it was first produced in Vienna on April 5, 1874.

It is a sumptuous production, complementing the listing Johann Strauss melodies with excellent voices, clever lyrics, plushy sets, beautiful costumes and plasing, thought not demanding, choreography.

We've often complained that the light opera orchestra is inclined to emphasize brassy volume at the expense of a musical tone, leaving one's head with the aching feeling that it's spent the exening between a pair of cymbals. But under the capable direction of Robert Zeller, "Rosalinda's" musicians waltz gaily through the frothy music and always sound like an orchestra, not a brass band.

Roving Eye

The plot revolves around Eisenstein (Cyril Ritchard) who has a roving eye and pinching fingers. He is extremely jealous of his beautiful wife Rosalinda (Jean Fenn) and not without reason, as a tenor (Thomas Hayward) comes in Rosalinda's window as Eisenstein goes out the door. The letter has to serve an eight-day jail sentence but intends to have one last fling with his friend Falke (Robert Wright) at Prince Orlofsk's (Sig Arno) party.

As the evening progresses, Hayward is mistaken for Eisenstein and jailed in his place, while everybody else goes to Orlofsky's party, including the jailer, (Ralph Dumke). The maid Adele (Lois Hunt) attends in borrowed finry and is completely taken in by Dumke who claims to be with the opera company.

Rosalinda, disguised of course, attends and naturally Eisenstein, also pretending to be someone else, fails to recognize her and begins a flirtation. It sounds confusing on paper, but everything works out beautifully on stage.

Laugh Experts

Ritchard fits the role of Eisenstein as though it had been written for him. Jean Fenn does the most beautiful singing of the company, closely followed by Robert Wright and Thomas Hayward. Dumke and Arno garner laughs with expert ease.

Lois Hunt was slightly disappointing. Her voice seemed shrill and insecure, possibly caused by her awareness of the ordeal awaiting her in the third act, when in a preposterous "audition," she competes with the Wiere Brothers for the audience's attention. So far as we are concerned, these three zanies added absolutely nothing to the show. Apparently we are all alone in our opinion, as the audience clamored for more and more. We just wished they'd go away and stay away.

From the clever opening to the very last note, "Rosalinda" is a delight. One can well understand why its final week at Los Angeles was to standing room only.

EL PORTAL 'LAKE' DRY-UP PROJECT WINS COUNCIL OK

Expenditure of $408.30 to correct inadequate drainage condition at the end of El Portal way in Westlake was tentatively authorized by the city council Monday night at study session.

A homeowner, Hartley Appleton, last week reported that a miniature "lake" had formed at the end of El Portal way. He maintained the city had created the problem when they constructed a burem to divert the flow of water off the street.

City Engineer Cyril Weiler reported to the council that the sidewalks had been badly undermined by recent storms and that 80 feet of pavement had settled. He said it would cost $408.30 to correct the sidewalk and pavement condition. He pointed out that the "lake" had dried up temporarily. The council is expected to give formal approval of the expenditure at next Monday's meeting.

DELAY SEEN IN MCKEON BUILDING

Construction on the 3500-home Chris McKeon subdivision south of Daly City won't start for at least another 45 days as a result of a decision in Judge Louis B. Dematteis Superior court Monday.

In a partition suit brought by the Zita Corporation, majority owners of the some 500 acres of land between Skyline and Junipero Serra boulevards, Judge Dematteis ruled for a partition in kind—meaning that the land should be divided in a manner recommended by court-appointed referees.

McKeon, representing the Zita Corporation, has been unable to start construction pending settlement of ownership of the land, which was formerly the Zanone estate and was divided up into parcels held by members of the Zanone family.

Thomas Callan Jr. and his wife own 39/720ths of the property under an earlier purchase, as do Henry and Thelma Doelger. Zita Corporation is said to hold the remainder of the property, under a purchase made a year ago.

The court referees have 45 days in which to report on the manner in which the land should be divided.

Referees are Ralph Clark and George Thomas and a third party to be appointed by the judge.

Daly City officials are following the McKeon development closely, since it is believed the subdivider will seek to have his tract annexed by this city or South San Francisco.

A break-down is given for each department, showing functions, costs and general information. The report is illustrated with pictures representative of department activities.

Crockerites Report

Mrs. Malone's Second Grade

Although the school year is almost over, our second grade is still busy winding up our own different activities.

We decorated a wall in our school with a large old-fashioned tra in loaded to capacity with happy faces eagerly traveling to "Vacation Land." Each child cut out and painted a face resmbling his own.

This week we are making butter as the last project for our farm unit. One group will shake the cream in a jar and the other will use a beater; we will learn which group will make the butter the fastest. We plan to eat the butter as soon as it is made.

The next two weeks will find us trying a few scientific experiments .One thing we will try to make is fog. Fog is a familiar sight in our area, and we plan to find out why we have so much of it during the summer.

Mrs. James Second Grade

The second grade class had made a study of the farm, and the different kind of animals living on a farm.

Our trip to the dairy introduced our farm study unit. We learned a great deal about farm life through movies, filmstrips, pictures and books. We have written stories about "Geraldine the Cow."

A study of farm life would not be complete without learing about the important products grown and raised on a farm. We studied how butter and cheese were made, and we were able to experiment by making butter ourselves. We chose two committees and had a contest to see who could make butter first. One committee put their cream in a large bottle and were called the "Shakers." The other committee was known as the "Beaters," The "Shakers" won because their cream turned to butter first. We all had a wonderful time getting our fill of our own butter (with and without salt) on crackers.

New Pisa 9 Rolls Up 12th Win In Row

Behind one-hit pitching by Bill Ludwigsen, and paced by sharp batting of Barry Krohn, Mike Rovai and Vic Kulik, Dante's New Pisa Juniors marched to their twelfth consecutive victory Sunday. Krohn and Rovai connected for doubles and Kulik scored two runs after getting two hits. Rovai belted the St. Charles Junior pitchers for three out of four.

The game was held at San Carlos recreation center and the final score was New Pisa Juniors, 9, St. Charles Juniors, 1. Rovai also played an outstanding defensive game and several sharp plays were made by Richy Morales and George Claus.

The youngsters, all 12 years old or under, are managed by Lowell Creighton and coached by Harry Krohn. They will play next Saturday in San Francisco and at Marchbanks Park at 2 p.m. on Sunday.

Mike Wall pitched a one-hitter to beat St. Cecelia Juniors, 11 to 0, at McCoppin Field last Saturday. George Claus hit a three-bagger in that game and Krohn got a double.

7th Grade Thinclads Smother Burlingame

Showing improvement and depth in all events, Colma seventh grade track team downed the visiting Burlingame cindermen on the home track Friday, 45-15.

The eighth grade Colma club lost the decision, 32-28, in a meet that was decided by the final relay. A bad pass of the baton ruined Colma's chances to upset the Blingums.

Italian-American Scholarships Given At SM Dinner

Winners of the Italian-American federation of San Mateo county's $500 scholarships were honored and presented at an awards dinner recently at the Peninsula Social club in San Mateo.

Congressman J. Arthur Younger praised the officers and members of the Federation for their interest in behalf of the youth of the county.

These awards given to the students are derived from the proceeds of the Columbus Day festival queen contest. Young girls from the county will again this year vie for the honor of being selected queen of the festival.

CHURCH WOMEN

Refugees returning into free Europe from behind the Iron Curtain will be needing almost everything, particularly clothing, and the Women's association of the Broadmoor Presbyterian church is working to help fill that need.

On Sunday, June 10, and Sunday, June 17, boxes will be placed in both the upper and lower halls of the church building so that contributors may leave serviceable clothing and shoes for men, women and children. Mrs. Frederick Moore, chairman, has requested that the clothing be bundled or put in bags for easier handling.

Something For Everyone

News of Your Local Library

According to medical authorities, there are between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 persons in the United States who are alcoholics. The Daly City Public Library has a number of excellent books on this vital subject.

One of the most recent titles is HOW TO LIVE WITHOUT LIQUOR, by Ralph Habas. The author, who writes a syndicated column on psychology, gives practical advice and information on overcoming the liquor habit. He also discusses such topics as "How to Keep from Becoming a Problem Drinker" and "Where to go for Help," for those who are unable to handle the problem alone. Another recent book is JUST ONE MORE, by James L. Free.

Why People Drink

In addition to these titles, the library also has several pamphlets on the subject of alcoholism, many of them published by Alcoholics Anonymous. An older book, still useful, is Charles Clapp, Jr's DRINKING'S NOT THE PROBLEM, which goes into the reasons why people drink and why reformed alcoholics often "fall off the wagon" again.

Another recent and immensely important book is WHY YOU DO WHAT YOU DO, edited by Robert N. Linscott and Jess Stein. In this Collection of articles by leading authorities, Dr. Karl A. Menninger contributes a chapter entitles "Alcohol Addiction." Writers of fiction have found the subject of alcoholism a veritable gold mine, and there have ben many best-sellers of recent years based on this growing problem. Two of the most justly famous are Charles Jackson's THE LOST WEEKEND ENCHANTED. Personal stories of ex-alcoholics have also been immensely popular; Lillian Roth's I'LL CRY TOMORROW is perhaps the most notable of these.

Recent and Readable

Other recent and readable works of non-fiction now availible at the Library include: A WIFE IS MANY WOMEN, by Doris Fleischman Bernays, wife of a noted public relations expert and herself a woman of varied interests and careers, who writes of the multitudinous activities of the modern wife and mother; F. Sherwood Taylor's AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF SCIENCE, which gives a new view to an old subject; BLECK HAWK, AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY, by the famous Indian warrior and chief; CATTLE AND MEN, by Charles W. Towne and Edward N. Wentworth, which traces the history of cattle reising with emphasis upon the changes in man's way of life because of this important agricultural development; Monk Gibbon's WESTERN GERMANY, a travel guide and appraisal of conditions there; Webb Garrison's WHY YOU SAY IT, which delves into many curious sayings and their origins; YOUR FEET AND THEIR CARE, by William A. Rossi, on one of the most important and most neglected medical subjects; THE FAMILY OF MAN, a magnificent photographic account by edward Steichen, one of our greatest living artists; POINT COUNT CONTRACT BRIDGE COMPLETE, a self-explanatory title by Ernest W. Rovere; YOU CAN MAKE MONEY ON THE STOCK MARKET, by Everett Mann; and Kenneth Tyan's BULL FEVER, the most recent and one of the most readable accounts of bull-fighting to be published.

For further information on books and reading, and to reserve any of the above titles, stop at the Daly City Public Library, 6351 Mission Street or the new Westlake-Broadmoor Branch Library, 34 Park Plaza Drive. Remember, your public library has something for everyone!

A new museum is planned at Crater Lake National Park in Oregon. The museum will house naturalist specimens and will show the geological history of the lake.

Honeywell To Enter Stanford Next Fall

Jim Honeywell, Jefferson high school's great all-around athlete, will enter Stanford University in the fall on a $750 athletic scholarship.

Honeywell, Jeff student body president, plans to major in engineering, and try out for the football, basketball and track teams in his freshman year.

The Indian star just completed the 1956 track season by placing second in the PAL meet and fourth in the North Coast Section, Group II, meet in the quarter mile.

He had his best grid season last fall running the Indians' split-T attack. He was named the PAL Player of the Year, and was also named to the All-northern California team. Honeywell also held down a first team berth on the cage squad.

Jefferson Victim As Sequoia Snares PAL Crown To Wind Up 1956 Season

Four Jefferson pitchers gave up a generous 18 hits as the Indians from Daly City failed in their eleventh hour attempt to claim the PAL championship, and Sequoia took the best two out of three series with an 18-6 rout Saturday at Flood Park.

The Indians, who had to make impressive come-backs all season to stay in the race and reach the league finals, had no offense to match the bat attack of the Cherokees Saturday, and certainly didn't have the stuff on the mound.

It was a fitting, if disastrous, climax to the three-game series, which found the winner in each of the contests scoring at least a dozen runs.

After their initial 14-4 loss, May 29, the Indians had come back Friday with a 12-5 triumph to square things up.

Momentary Lead

And for a while Saturday it looked like Lou Martin's Tribe was on its way to glory and the crown as they rallied with three hits and two runs to momentarily take the lead, 2-1.

Big Tom Cloutier, the first batter up in the second, homered 400 feet over the center field fence to even up the game. Barry Haanan then smashed a double to left and, the Jefferson bats still booming, Bob Grubb clouted one to right center field that went for a ground rule two-bagger, scoring Haanan. But that was the only big moment for Jefferson.

Score In Bunches

Sequoia came back with four tallies in the third, two in the fourth, seven in the fifth and three and one in the sixth and seventh innings, respectively. The Cherokees didn't need but half this many, as the Indians never threatened, getting a single run in the fourth and three more in the sixth.

The Jeffs only picked up eight hits for the day, Haanan and Grubb each getting a pair, Ray Vuillemainroy, Bill Strassburger, Ino Patron and Cloutier, one each.

The Indians used up their pitching staff but still couldn't contain the Sequoia barrage. Vuillemainroy started and survived until the fourth, when Ed Leveroni stepped in. He was followed in succession by Haanan and Ino Patron. Vuillemainroy, tired from his grueling pitching load all season, gave up 10 of the hits, Leveroni and Haanan, one apiece, and Patron, five.

Clobber Sequoia

The Daly City club clobbered the Sequoians for 10 runs in the second inning in Friday's 12-5 victory.

Although out-hit, 8-6, the Indians made a rout out of it on the strength of the 10-run second inning that was fashioned by the laxity of the Sequoia pitcher, Bob Wolger, who gave up seven walks, three hits in the one frame.

Cloutier started the pattern in the second by forcing a walk out of Wolger. Haanan did the same, and Grubb banged a Wolger offering for a single, loading the bags.

Mike Wedlake then got free transportation, forcing the first run. Jeff chucker Ed Leveroni drove a single to center, scoring a pair of runs. Patron got a free ride to first, loading the bags again, and Wolger was yanked.

But the situation didn't change, as reliefer Lyman Ashley walked in Leroy Franzoia, forcing cross another tally. Strassburger pasted one to first base, but first-sacker Bob Scott was wild in his throw for home, and Leveroni came home with another tally.

A passed ball moved Patron home, and Bailey then walked to load the sacks again. Cloutier, coming up for his second go-around in the inning, blasted a double to right center that pushed home three runs, ending the Indian uprising. Haanan grounded for the first out, Wedlake forced Grubb, who drew a walk, and Leveroni grounded out to end the inning.

Jefferson tallied two again in the fourth as Haanan tripled and Wedlake singled.

Leveroni was steady in gaining the win, walking five and whiffing six batters while allowing eight hits.

The contest ended Jefferson High school's baseball activity for the year, with the exception of the team members who will participate in the All Star game Saturday.

The Indians, who finished the regular season in second place with a 8-4 mark, behind South San Francisco, 9-3, had a total of 19 wins, 13 losses, during the "feast and famine" season.

This year marks the last for Martin as coach of the Tribe, a post he has held for four years. He is taking over administrative duties at the local high school which make it impossible for him to continue his coaching chores.

His successor will be Steve Mazzera, a University of Oregon graduate who is currently teaching in San Francisco.

CITY FATHERS TO UMP ANNUAL HILLSIDE GAME

Hillside Homeowners Improvement association will have some distinguished arbiters when they hold their annual softball game Sunday at Colma school, starting at 2 p.m.

Mayor Joseph Verducci and Councilman Paul Hupf will umpire the game, which pits Callan Heights against Teresa Terrace.

In the first annual game last year Callan Heights won the nod.

The winner of Sunday's contest will be presented a perpetual trophy by the mayor.

All residents of Daly City are invited to attend the game. Free refreshments will be provided for the youngsters.

JOLLY PACES DEN 3 TO VICTORY IN CUB OLYMPICS

A brisk and chilly afternoon wind failed to dampen the spirit of Den 3 Cub Scouts who racked up 38 well-earned points to win the pennant during Pack 261's Olympic festival last Sunday.

The games, staged at Holy Angels school playground, saw Den 3 emerge with a near monopoly of first places, with Jim Jolly, 483 D street, Daly City, contributing almost half of the total wining points. Jim, who is in the winning den, copped first place in the baseball throw, 40-yard dash, broad jump, and second place in the shot put events for 10 and 11 year olds.

Other den totals showed Den 4 in second place with 16 points racked up in both age groups, Den 2 came in 3rd with 12 points, while Den 1 brought up the tail end with 5 points.

NAME LEADERS IN COLMA GIRLS BALL

Girls intra-mural softball league at Colma schools finds Noei Ranger's Rangers and Forrest Simoncini's Vikings deadlocked for first place in the eighth grade division, while Miss Barbara Biagini's Wildcats hold the top spot in the seventh grade.

Robert Chapman's All Stars and Mrs. Sarah Mitchell's Rams share second place in the seventh grade, while Charles Solley's Midgets and Miss Betty Welp's Hepcats are tied for third in the eighth grade race.

SMITH RIVER

RAY ROSA, JEFF GRAD, SHINES WITH ARMY TEAM

Ray Rosa, former all-around athletic great at Jefferson High school, who was graduated in '54, is now making a name for himself in Honolulu, where he is stationed at Scofield Barracks in the U. S. Army.

He was honored in a recent issue of the Barracks newspaper as "Star of the Week."

Rosa, who plays third base for the army team, has hit safely 19 times in 40 trips to the plate—including two doubles and a triple—for a fat .475 batting average. He has eight RBIs, has scored nine runs and has stolen four bases in four attempts.

The article describes Rosa as "The Golden Dragon's hard-hitting, slick-fielding third baseman who wasn't even sure he'd make the team until the sason was well underway."

"What's more surprising," the article continues, "Is the ease with which Rosa handles 'hot corner' smashes. His fancy glove work has changed many 'could be' base hits into easy outs and he is presently fielding at a .923 clip."

A .343 hitter while at Jeff, in addition to being the Indians ace quarterback and a member of the basketball team, Rosa turned down a Pittsburgh Pirates contract in favor of a college education.

After leaving the service, Rosa plans to attend Oregon University.

Four Jeff Players Compete Saturday In North-South Tilt

Four Jefferson baseballers will compete Saturday in the annual PAL All-Star game which pits the best in the north against the best in the south of the prep athletic league.

Jefferson members of the starting club are Ino Patron, second-sacker, and Tom Cloutier, hard-hitting outfielder.

Ray Vuillemainroy, the Indians ace pitcher, and Barry Haanan, sharp outfielder, will probably see action as members of the All-Star second club.

The contest will be held at Stanford's sunken diamond.

VENTURI BOUND FOR ROCHESTER & NATIONAL OPEN

Daly City's Ken Venturi, putting together rounds of 70 and 68 for a 138 total at Peninsula club, this week insured himself a spot for the National Open Golf Tournament scheduled for June 14-16 at Oak Hill Country Club, Rochester, N. Y.

Venturi departed for Rochester by plane yesterday along with Harvie Ward, who was exempt from qualifying because he is national amateur champion.

'Hepcats' At Colma Swing And Sway In Dance Contests

Eighth grade champions in the recently-concluded intra-mural dance contest at Colma school are classes of Miss Betty Welp and Charles Solley, winners of the American and National leagues, respectively.

Each class had an entry in each of the three events, fox trot, rhumba-waltz for eighth graders, and "bop" for the seventh.

In the seventh grade competition, Bob La Cava's youngsters captured the American league crown, while Robert Chapman's students annexed the National league.

WM. LAGOMARSINO SOFTBALL 9 WINS IN FIRST TITLE DEFENSE

The rampaging Wm. Lagomarsino & Co. Realty club served emphatic notice that they intend to retain the title they have monopolized for the past three years by blasting an inexperienced Eagles club, 22-1, in the opening game of the recration department Softball league Wednesday night at Marchbanks park.

The Lagomarsino nine virtually sewed the game up in the first inning when they pounded four consecutive hits for five runs. Guido Beraldo's triple and Ray Chelone's homer with two aboard were the big blows of the inning.

Lagomarsino continued the onslaught with a pair of runs in the second, seven more in the fifth, and eight in the sixth, off heavy hitting of Leo Massoni, Al Delfino and Eddie Arnold.

Lone Eagle Tally

The lone Eagle digit came in the third frame when Al Ramirez drilled a round-tripper into deep center field.

Vic Drago, veteran Lagomarsino pitcher, established a league record by striking out the first six men to face him. He picked up two more whiffs later in the game for a total of eight. Homer Fundak was the victim on the mound for the Eagles.

Power laden Daly City Drug established themselves as contenders with an 11-3 victory over Gino's club in a game held Tuesday at Marchbanks. The Drug Co's. batters had no trouble with the righthand slants of Gino's chucker John McLanahan and posted a 6-0 lead in the initial inning. Fred Fazio's bases-loadedhomer highlighted the action.

Gino's picked up a tally in their half of the first on a pair of walks and Tom Tromborg's liner to left.

Second Homer

In the fourth stanza, Fazio rapped his second four-master of the evening with two on the bags. Singles by Dave Cafferata, McLanahan and Overdorf manufactured a lone-run for Gino's in their half of the inning. Gino's picked up another digit in the sixth when Cafferata's single scored Bill Rade from third, but a pair of Daly City runs in the final inning checked any hopes for Gino's. Bob Luccia turned in the victory for Daly City.

First major upset of the infant league nearly came about Wednesday on Jefferson diamond when newly-organized OLPH Men's club played on even terms with the tough Broadmoor Police nine, only to lose, 15-8, after a late-inning barrage by the cops.

Behind, 8-0, going into the third inning, OLPH tallied twice and then cut loose in the fourth with six runs and a new ball game, on the strength of slugging by Ed Coleman, Bud Lycett and Dave Johnstone.

The Broadmoor club retaliated in the fifth on singles by Woodward, Ray Savage and Gonzales, aided by five costly OLPH errors to add five big runs. A home run by Broadmoor short stop Bill Mann with one aboard added another pair and ended the evening's scoring. Gonzales pitched the win for the police. Joe Di Maggio was the loser.
